

A NATIONAL CONFERENCE • APRIL 27-28, 2007 • BOSTON

Crimes of the Civil Rights Era

BRINGING

TOGETHER victims, legislators, scholars, journalists, activists, and criminal justice professionals

TO IMAGINE NEW APPROACHES

to the legacy of anti-civil rights violence

TO BUILD AND SUSTAIN collaboration, address the challenges of criminal prosecution, explore theories and strategies of the movement for redress, and further scholarly research

PROGRAM

FRIDAY, APRIL 27 HARVARD LAW SCHOOL, AUSTIN HALL

- Prosecutors' Roundtable (2pm)
- Mississippi Congressman Bennie Thompson (5pm)

SATURDAY, APRIL 28; REGISTRATION AT 8 AM

NORTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY, JOHN D. O'BRYANT
AFRICAN-AMERICAN INSTITUTE, 40 LEON STREET, BOSTON

PLENARY SESSIONS:

- Reexamining Past Cases:
Legal and Political Challenges
- Beyond the Courtroom:
Alternative Remedies for Past Wrongs
- Community Engagement and the Search for Justice

Distinguished Speakers: Mississippi Congressman Bennie Thompson, Rita Schwerner Bender, Myrlie Evers-Williams

Conference Fee: Friday: Free, Saturday: $75.00;
$40.00 for students (scholarships available)

Sponsors: Northeastern University Project on Civil Rights and Restorative Justice and the Harvard University Charles Hamilton Houston Institute for Race and Justice

TO REGISTER VISIT www.slaw.neu.edu

FOR MORE INFORMATION CALL 617-373-2271